

Health/PE Resources

Below is a document the GCA teachers have put together that is filled with Health and PE resources. GCA students are required to complete 30 hours (maximum) of Health and 60 hours(maximum) of PE during the school year. GCA and K12 do not provide a Health or PE curriculum so that is why the teachers have put this together for families. Please know that these are just suggested web sites, books and videos and that you can use any of your own Health/PE resources you have or find. All links were verified as accurate on 12/18/13 but occasionally websites become inactive. We apologize if you find any links do not work.

Disclaimer: Certain links/materials contain subject matter not every parent chooses for their students to study. We strongly recommend that the Learning Coach make certain the link/material is appropriate for their student.

All Systems Are Go!

<http://www.sciencenetlinks.com/interactives/systems.html>

Arnold is missing a number of body parts. Students are presented with a body system and a variety of organs. Students drag and drop all the organs that belong in that particular body system to Arnold's body. Once all four systems are complete, a clothed Arnold will appear. But if students drag in an organ that doesn't belong, all the organs pop out and students have to start that system over.

BrainPOP Health

<http://www.brainpop.com/health/>

This cutting-edge Web site offers teachers and students a multitude of health topics. Each topic opens up a new window complete with an animated video and follow-up activities. Links to science, technology, and a site search add to the value of this site.

Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.)

<http://www.dare.org/kids/>

This site offers lots of material that reinforces the D.A.R.E. message. Areas that promote a positive self-concept, sections that encourage kids to say "No" to drug use, and lists of activities to keep boredom away enhance the program. The site, which uses Flash technology to rev up its page, also has areas for educators and parents.

Explore Your Dream World

<http://library.thinkquest.org/C005545/>

This ThinkQuest entry takes the viewer through an exploration of sleep and how it can affect health. The site has worthwhile sections on both sleep and dreams, and the segment on sleep and health does a first-rate job of presenting common issues such as snoring, sleeplessness, and nightmares. The interactive corner offers the opportunity for discussion and dream analysis that is ideal for secondary students, and the teaching resources section offers activity ideas and links to supplement the site.

The Food Timeline

<http://www.foodtimeline.org/>

Have you taught students about the food pyramid? Did you cover the food groups and healthful diets? Are you looking for a new and different way to approach nutrition? This interactive time line offers you and your students all kinds of perspective on how foods have evolved throughout the ages -- from salt and bread to Spam and Flutie Flakes! Did you realize canned tuna was first made in 1903 or that Grey Poupon dijon mustard dates back to 1777? Imagine the implications across the curriculum in your classroom!

Health Smart

<http://www.gphealthsmart.com/>

Georgia-Pacific presents this site to involve students in their own education about germs, hygiene, and good safety practices. The virtual home is a great place where children can experience germ "hot spots" around the house. And the list of lesson plans in .pdf format makes life much easier for teachers who are teaching about hygiene and healthful choices in the classroom.

The following websites are a great way to introduce and discuss these topics with your child!!!!

National Crime Prevention Council

<http://www.ncpc.org/>

This site is very easy to navigate, and is child and parent friendly! Check out the Topics in Crime Prevention. You will also find additional links on bullying, child abuse and neglect, child development, and child safety. These links provide access to on-line publications, books, articles, agencies and organizations.

Safe Kids

www.safekids.com

Books

Elementary:

Magic School Bus Series by Joanna Cole and Burde Degen-The Magic School Bus was a series of children's books intended to teach scientific concepts to children. They were written between 1986 and 2001 by Joanna Cole and illustrated by Bruce Degen. The most recent book was published in August 2006. The books feature the exploits of Ms. Frizzle and her class, who board a magic school bus which takes them on field trips into space, under the Earth, into the human body, or to other such impossible locations. The books were written in the first person from the point of view of an unnamed student in "the Friz's" class.-wikipedia.org
